Delano "DJ Delano" Thomas is the founder, CEO and DJ frontman for Renaissance Disco, an iconic sound system originating out of Kingston, Jamaica since 1989. This legend of sound, a veteran of music, and a crowned Remix King has graced the music industry from the party to the stage to the studio in Jamaica and across the continents. His unique style of fusing musical genres for diverse demographics has made his DJ performances and music productions always relevant and nothing short of enigmatic.

Collaborations:

This 2 time ASCAP music award recipient 2015 is the first local DJ/music producer to have this achievement. He has collaborated on performances, productions or tours with the likes of Beenie Man, Grandmaster Flash, Eve, Swiss Beats, Sean Paul, Shaggy, Bounty Killa, Wyclef Jean, Doug E. Fresh, Serani and Destiny's Child.

Appearances & Performances:

The genius that is DJ Delano produced the timeless, Bounty Killa 1996 Nitro Mix and the 1997 Dancehall Queen Remix. He is the mastermind behind acclaimed riddims such as "Rebirth", "Tunda Klap", "Stepz," and "Gallis Swing" among many others, fusing dancehall and hip hop sounds and taking it worldwide with appearances on BET's 106 & Park, MTV, Soul Train, the Conan O'Brien Show, the Dick Clark Show in LA, and becoming a Billboard producer with Sean Paul's chart-topping single "We Be Burnin".

He currently mentors and works closely with his own son and other young artistes and DJs producing new riddims and music. He has mentored the likes of renown Miami record producer DJ Khaled.

He has been featured in some of the hottest and most prominent night clubs around the world seeking to showcase his unmatched talent. He has played at The House of Blues in Los Angeles, The Apollo in New York City, Karu & Y as well as the Hard Rock in Miami, and Crystal Palace in London, England.

Delano is also the training consultant for the DJ training programme provided by the Ministry of Tourism in Jamaica 2018.
